

Table of Contents

A FOREWORD BY C. EVERETT KOOP, M.D, SCD	1
“THE BLIND MEN AND THE ELEPHANT”	6
BRINGING MEANING AND MEDICINE TOGETHER An integrative model of healing	8
GILLIE’S STORY: WHERE THERE’S A WILL, THERE’S A WAY A dramatic example of the healing model in action	29
LESSONS OF INSPIRATION: HOW GILLIE’S TALE RELATES TO YOU The healing model effects cure in even the most severe of cases	67
STEP ONE: BODY Getting a baseline and accepting who you are	82
STEP TWO: MIND Figuring out your mindset, attitudes, and identifying family-of-origin issues	139
STEP THREE: SPIRIT Involving meaning and purpose in your healing journey	167

STEP FOUR: PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER	194
How to stay the course and maintain hope through the process
IN THE WORDS OF MY PATIENTS	211
What it feels like to suffer and heal
TAKE-HOME MESSAGES AND CLOSING BLESSING	261
A summary and call to action
APPENDICES
I DEPRESSION	264
II BIPOLAR DISORDER	273
III PANIC DISORDER	285
IV OBSESSIVE-COMPULSIVE DISORDER	289
V POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER	293
VI SOCIAL PHOBIA	297
VII GENERALIZED ANXIETY DISORDER	301
VIII ANXIETY DISORDERS: RESOURCES	305
IX ATTENTION DEFICIT HYERACTIVITY DISORDER	308
X EATING DISORDERS	327
XI ADDICTIVE ILLNESS	335
INDEX	339